NOMINATIONS FOR 2017-2018 GACRAO LEADERSHIP

President

It shall be the duty of the President to assume full responsibility for all general activities of the Association, to conduct all necessary correspondence with the members in regards to meetings of the Association, and with the assistance of the Executive Committee, to arrange the programs. In case the position becomes vacant, the order of succession shall be the usual one.

President-Elect

The President-Elect will succeed to the Presidency the year following the term as President-Elect, and in addition, it will be the responsibility of the President-Elect to plan and arrange the annual meeting which will terminate his/her term as President-Elect. To be elected to this office, the President-Elect must have served on the Executive Committee for at least one year as Secretary, Treasurer, or a Member-at-Large. With the exception of President-Elect, there is no automatic progression from any one position on the Executive Committee to another.

Immediate Past President

The Immediate Past-President shall serve in an advisory capacity and shall be a member of the Executive Committee and will serve as a member of the Professional Access and Equity Committee. The Immediate Past President will chair the Committee on Honorary Membership and Awards and the Nominations and Elections Committee.

Secretary

The Secretary shall be responsible for keeping the minutes of the meetings of the Executive Committee and the minutes of all meetings of the Association and shall distribute the latter to the members. The Secretary shall also be responsible for the printing of letterhead and envelopes. The Secretary will provide information to SACRAO and AACRAO (when requested) concerning activities of GACRAO, will provide information to the website editor (when requested) for inclusion on the GACARO website. The secretary will be responsible for preparing evaluation forms for each program session at the annual meeting and summarizing them for the executive committee as well as meeting with session recorders at the annual meeting to explain their duties and responsibilities.

Treasurer

The Treasurer shall collect the membership dues, registration fees, other miscellaneous revenues, pay the bills as authorized by the President, shall make a report at the annual meeting of the Association, shall keep an accurate list of the members of the Association, will be responsible for monitoring the updates of the membership directory on the GACRAO website, and will be responsible for conducting the registration process for the annual GACRAO conference. This position is a two-year term.

Member-at-Large I: Corporate Partners

The Member-at-Large I will solicit vendors to exhibit at the annual meeting of the Association and for soliciting ads to be placed in the printed program of the annual meeting. This person will also be responsible for registering the vendors and others for providing them with suitable exhibit space.

Member-at-Large II: Hospitality & Entertainment

The Member-at-Large II shall be responsible for hospitality, receptions and public relations for the Association. Specific responsibilities will include a reception on Monday during the annual meeting to which the following will usually be invited: the Executive Committee members, a representative and his or her spouse of each vendor which exhibits at the annual meeting, program committee members and other who might be specified by the President.

Member-at-Large III: Professional Development & New Professionals

The Member-at-Large III shall be responsible for arranging and conducting the New Professionals' Orientation Program and Handbook for the annual meeting and coordinating and conducting the annual Mid-year Workshop. This position is a two-year term.

Member-at-Large IV: Professional Access & Equity

The Member-at-Large IV is responsible for developing sessions and workshops relating to access and equity issues. Member-at-Large IV will chair a committee that works with other committees to ensure that underrepresented populations have the opportunity to enhance their professional development through organizational participation.

Local Arrangements Chair

The Local Arrangements Chair is responsible for the equipment (screens, projectors, flipcharts, electrical cords, etc.) and signage necessary to support the yearly professional GACRAO meetings. The LAC Chair works closely with the President Elect to coordinate signage and equipment needs. As well, the LAC chair works to coordinate all physical aspects of the conference with the onsite conference representative.
